

WHAT IS ECHELON?

The Salvation Army's Network of Young Professionals

WHO WE ARE

Echelon is a branch of The Salvation Army with the goal of mobilizing the next generation to engage with the organization through fellowship and networking, donations and fundraising, as well as service and volunteering opportunities for young adults.

WHO SHOULD JOIN

- Young Professionals
- Based in Los Angeles County
- Excited to address some of today's most pressing issues within our community

WHAT TO EXPECT

Volunteer Opportunities

Join us for volunteer events that benefit children, families, and seniors at our community centers and shelters.

Networking & Social Events

Meet like-minded individuals and make lasting connections with other young adults trying to make an impact in their community.

Fundraising

All Echelon fundraising activities directly support Salvation Army services within our community.
